September

It was a different, I would even say odd, September. Usually it is a very busy race ministry month but with my new work schedule I missed two big events and then had the annual church campout. What a great time that was as Jay Seegert, from Creation Education Center joined us and taught. The only racing event of the month was the Fall Classic at Madison International Speedway. It was a good event and great way to end the season at MIS. I will be recapping the season in an upcoming newsletter. We had chapel and did two more studies in Psalms and prayed with drivers individually and in the drivers meetings.

Caution on the track

As I mentioned I have a new work schedule which includes working every other weekend. Because of this I missed one of my favorite events - the National Short Track Championships. It is one I look forward to all year long. Sorry I missed it guys and gals. Hopefully the Spring opener will be ok.

Looking for Answers?

The place to find answers is not in the self help aisle of the bookstore, or the talk show host on TV, or on the radio. Answers, true answers, are found in God's Word, the Bible. TJRM still has a handful of Bibles left and would love to put one in your hands. Just ask me for a Bible and I will get one to you.

One to go

The white flag is out, they are racing to the finish line. Our last event is Oktoberfest at LaCrosse Fairground Speedway. We will get to minister to Big 8, Mid AM, ASA Trucks and Touring Series. We are looking forward to it.

Also available

True Success Newspaper - featuring a story on Don Wickstrum from MIS - headlined with Trevor Bayne and included his story from youth to becoming the youngest Daytona 500 winner.

Little Help needed

We have a couple of off-season projects. One, helping find a speaker for the Mid Am Banquet. Doug and Julie would love to have a strong Christian with a racing background (either driver, owner, team member, sponsor) to come share at the banquet. Two, how to publish a booklet of racing devotions I have written. Three, finishing a couple articles for next year's True Success. Four, helping get a couple tracts published

Upcoming events

October 8th / 9th – Oktoberfest at LaCrosse

Thanks for praying. Don't forget to check out new devotionals at www.teamjrm.com

Have a great day racin' in the SONshine!
