August 2014

In association with:
Raceway Ministries (a national association of raceway ministries and chaplains formerly NFRM)
Chaplain: Todd Christopherson

Acts 20:24: However, I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me-the task of testifying to the gospel of God's grace.(from NIV)

Change

In the last month there has been some major announcements and change in the local Midwest racing community. Gregg McKarns stepped down from Rockford Speedway and the Big 8 Series. Doug and Julie Strasberg have changed their duties at Mid American Stock Car Series and are looking to step back. Steve Einhaus stepped away from the ARCA Midwest tour. All talked about family being a main reason which to me is a very solid reason.

We could easily be worried about racing and what is going to happen and maybe you are. This is such a teachable point in several areas.

One, in racing maybe it is ok to look at one person but in most cases they have someone that will step in and although it will be different it will not fall apart. In our spiritual life we are not to look to one person in leadership like a pastor. Instead we are to look to the ONE God, the Father, Son and Spirit.<sup>1</sup>

Two, we could be worried but that is because our focus is in the wrong place. We should have our focus on God with our eyes, mind and heart fixed on Jesus.<sup>2</sup>

Three, we could be knocked off what seemed to be a good and straight path on to what appears to be shaky ground. Instead we should be focused and fixed on the Solid Rock, that is, Jesus Christ. That is the firm foundation and where we can stand with confidence because of who Jesus is and what He has done so if you are worried, let's chat about your concerns and see if we can get on firm ground and leave worry behind.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Luke 6:48; 2 Tim 2:19;
