December 2016

2016 Recap

40+ events
18 chapels
3 different states
5 different tracks

That is way down from last year as we were committed to MIS on Friday nights and Jefferson on Saturday. That really limits getting out with the touring series.

Served in a limited way 8 different series (just 3 ARCA Midwest Tour; 4 Big 8; Mid Am events)

We miss the touring but the open door at Jefferson cannot be ignored. Hopefully we will see some solid fruit come out of the effort.

RV update

Cindy has spent a lot of time trying to sell our RV and find something that would work for us. So far nothing either side. We have had a bunch of calls but no one serious on what we have heard is a then fair price. Also, Cindy's search has come up empty. We are leaning on the LORD for both and know it is His timing. We are setting aside dollars to be ready when God opens up the right RV. Cindy is convinced we need more room and that God will provide that.

Prayer

We would ask for prayer in these areas:

Discernment, we are trying to discern what track(s) and series to be involved with this coming up season.

Next, healing in the family. Pray for Cindy's parents, my brother-in-law, and Cindy. All struggling with different health issues.

Third, pray for discernment on the RV.

And pray that the words would reach hearts in need. That the Bible messages would find their way into lives.

Acts 20:24 But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course (race) and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. (ESV)

Family update

Cindy has had many years of struggles with different health issues. This year is no different. Some tests were run and indicate there are some numbers of concern where we need to watch for cancer. One set being watch is over 8. At 10 action (chemo) is taken.

Jeremiah has really improved in his reading which is good to see. He is doing a good job in Awana and looking forward to the upcoming gymnastics season. He did really well in several disciplines.

Daniel is doing well in school and very well in Awana! His gifting in music amazes me. He picks up an instrument and in a day or two is playing a song or hears a song and is playing it on the piano. He has played at church a couple of times now.

Manny is up and down in school. He is very smart and can get things quickly when he puts his mind to it. Awana is a great example. He crushed his book and memory work way ahead of schedule. He has really enjoyed working out at Advance, finished 6th at State freestyle, and has a very good start to his high school wrestling career.

Lonyea is also improving a lot in her reading. She has a great heart of care and giving. Her basketball season last spring was going well and she was scoring big in many games. Toward the end of the season she took a tough shot in the foot and ankle and ended up needing surgery again. This one cost her a lot of time off the court and the recovery has been slow. She is playing for DeForest this year. Seems to be having fun but really misses the homeschool team.

Rayna is finishing up school. She is doing great at Awana and is on pace to receive their highest award that only a small percentage of people ever get. She has a job that works really well for her and has already received a bonus and a raise.
