December with Dad in Arkansas

I mentioned last month I would share some photos of our trip to my Dad's. We are so blessed! Please go to www.teamjrm.com to see the photos. I did not want to email a huge file.

After missing a year of getting down to visit Dad (Grandpa) for Christmas we were able to return. What a great time. We love getting this time with him.

He is so special. I will only cover a few of the highlights.

We had a great day in Little Rock. For years I have been asking we go to Family Life. I know it would not be that big of a deal but I just thought it would be fun for the kiddos to see a real studio. I mentioned it again and asked Cindy to call. She did and a couple hours later we were in their lobby awaiting a tour. A young man (Marques Holt) came out and gave us the tour. Wow, what a testimony of what God can do in a life. THANK YOU Marques. Then he asked us to return for a recording. You should have seen the kids' eyes light up. We went into town and went back to the National Museum, Little Rock Central High where in 1957 the Nine integrated into an all white school. Great history. I went out to a walking park and then headed back to Family Life. Wow what a fun day.

Another highlight was going to Texarkana. 1) we got to get to see my sister who lives in the Dallas area and her son and his kiddos and 2) we got to stand in two states at the same time.

Other fun times included going to the Home Plate restaurant. It is one of Dad's favorites and than one of our favorites, The Shack. We enjoyed several great sunsets and sunrises. We had several days that were nice and warm before it got a little cool. One cool thing was as we were in Missouri and Arkansas there were two small rainbows that hung in the sky for what seemed like an hour. But the best nature event that God provided was a rainbow going into Hot Springs. It was brilliant, close and full. We could see it end to end and for the first time ever, we saw the end of a rainbow.

Acts 20:24 But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course (race) and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. (ESV)

A couple other fun things was to visit the Village Bible Church. It is nice to visit one of our "second" home churches. We went to Christmas Eve service with Grandpa at his church. Another highlight was getting to go to a Lifeway Store in Hot Springs. One of Cindy's joys is to put together a puzzle. Manny spent much of a day blowing leaves. And the best of the best part is just hanging out together and hearing Grandpa tell stories of his life.

Giving and RV Update

The last few months we have been blessed with a second monthly giving partner. Thank you

In the last couple of months we received two large amounts. Thank you
Our church continues to support us monthly. Thank you

The RV situation has not changed. We have it for sale and no true interest has been shown. I still wonder if there is a ministry that could use it. We would gladly gift it to a ministry. We are back to wondering if with the recent gifts given as of late we should make the repairs needed or use those funds for hotel stays as needed in 2018. Pray with us for discernment.

As you pray for the ministry, please pray that God would see open hearts unto salvation this season; protection for all involved in racing; doors to be open to continue to minister at the track and with the drivers, teams, staffs and fans; and pray that we would be focused on eternal things and be pure and true to the LORD.

One last cool thing! In our study in Proverbs in chapels and on the website we reached a milestone. Lesson number 100 was posted recently. Yes 100 lessons in the book of Proverbs. Maybe it would be worth your time to check some of them out? You will find them at www.teamjrm.com
