January has been an exciting month highlighted by three big events for TJRM.

One, we launched a web site.

A HUGE THANK YOU to Rick and Mary Ratkey. Rick has been working the site and getting things on it. He has done a great job on it and it looks really good to me. Our hope is that the devotion section will be used and that they will read them and go to their Bible and find answers to the great question of life. We are praying that the site will be used by God to bring people to surrender to the LORD. If you would like to check it out, you can find us at www.teamjrm.com.

Two, National Fellowship of Raceway Ministry Annual Meeting.

We started with a day of training in Lebanon, TN and continued for the next couple of days learning more and sharing ideas. It was very good. I hope that some of things I found out will be used this season and in seasons to come. The encouragement to press on was one of the highlights and hearing from both large event and weekly guys was really valuable. The fellowship and stories were so good.

Three,

Madison International Speedway Annual Banquet
We always enjoy the time we get with the fans, drivers, teams and staff of MIS.

Things to pray about

This is the time of year that much planning is going on. We are trying to get schedules together for Madison International Speedway, other tracks and series that we are allowed to work with. It looks like an exciting season coming up. Pray that we have discernment what events to be at what not to.

February 6th we are going to Elmbrook No Regrets Men's Conference and sharing the ministry. Pray that we are clear in are presentation of the ministry. Also pray that others would want to serve. That is what we are trying to do – recruit servants.

Pray for the use of the web site for God's glory and for some to respond to God's Word that is shared.

Pray for personal growth in all areas of my life. I know that I need to grow in obedience and in living holy, blameless and pure. That call is in all areas of one's life and it is a high calling.
